Matters at Pensacola Bay. We find the following in our exchanges in reference to the Forts about Pensacola:

FORT PICKENS. This fortification, now in possession of 225 United States troops, under the command of 1st Lieutenant Adam J. Slemmer, of the 1st Regiment of Artillery, is now invested by 2000 troops from Georgis, Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi, under the command of Major General W. H. Chase, formerly Major in the United States Corps of Engineers. Fort Pickens is commanded by Fort Barancas and Fort McRae, both of which by Fort Barancas and Fort McItae, both of which works, with a new battery recently erected, are ready to open fire on Fort Pickens at a moment's warning The besiegers at last accounts were making scaling ladders and other prepara-

First Lieutenant Adam J. Slemmer, of Pensylvania, is in command of the United States garrison at Fort Pickens, Pensacola. He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point in September, 1846, and graduated in 1850, when he was commissioned in the army as brevet 2d Lieutenant of the lat Regiment of Artillery. He was appointed 1st Lieutenant in Artillery. He was appointed 1st Lieutenant in Artillery. He was appointed 1st Lieutenant in April, 1854, and ordered on special duty as acong Assistant Professor of Ethics and Mathematics, at the West Point Academy in 1855-6.

Give us our Due.—While we do not claim that Edgefield is the Banner District in volunteering for the defence of the State, we are yet disposed to ask certain papers to please) not ignore us in this business. The district having been honored in the choice of a Governor, is one reason why it is thought desirable over one reason why it is thought desirable over one reason why it is thought desirable over here that the truth of Eedgefield's action should not be overlooked. May we not then ask our brethren of the press to notice what follows: Edgefield has three full companies in Colonel

Gregg's regiment.
Edgefield has six more full companies raised by volunteers from her battelions under the n bloodless separation can now be effected, after ther. (South Carolina) foolishly firing upon a vesselibearing our flag. the other day, I think very doubtful. I was surely tempted to open my battery, but, perhaps fortunately, for the chance of cery, but, perhaps fortunately, for the chance of paving matters settled without bloodshed, I could not have touched the battery that opened appn her, and my defences were just then in such, a condition that I could not have opened the war. I am now nearly ready. The people have supposed that this work was ready to be defended when I came in. I was far from it—and it would take me area now one work's heat work avould take me, even now, one week's hard work avoild take me, even now, one weeks hard work for have it in a complete state. My command is only aboet one eighth of what it should be in time of war—but though small in number feel strong in the confidence that providence will grard and guide, me safely through any danger that may threaten.

If this be a little ahead of the foremost, we ,can't help it .- Edgefield Advertiser.

PERSENTE: The informed that CAPT. R. A. A volunteer payself, and a crizen of Edgefield District, I trust that I will not be considered as

FORT SEMEER KEINFORGED. -- NEW YORK, Peb runry 4 -It has been positively reported here, to day, apparantly on good authority, that Fort Sunter was reinforced on Saurday night by 212 men and 13 officers. It is alleged that they took advantage of the darkness, and made their way to the fort in small boats with muf fled oars.

The Perition of two thousand New York city workingmen was sent to the Legislature at Albany, asking them to restore peace to the country-not by cannon-balls and bui ets, but by justice and equality. The petition, by a (Republican) vote, was not allowed to he rend, even. There is a world of meaning in that action; but as the workingmen themselves will understand it, comment is unnecessary.

ARMS FOR MISSISSIPPI.-Pive thousand mus kets were yesterday removed from the Arsenal here and shipped on the Nathez this morning to Vicksburg. They were purchased some time age by the Stafe of Mississippi. Their removal came very near getting up an excitement, but when it was found that their destination was Missieippi, people laughed at each other and said "all right"-Baton Rouge Advocate.

AFFECTION IN MEN AND WOMEN .-- Women are eaid to have stronger attachments than men. It is not so. Strength of attachment is evinced in little things. A man is often attached to an old hat; but did you ever know of a woman having an attachment for an old bonnet?-

GENERAL SCOTT.—The Norfolk (Va.) Herald states, "on pretty good authority," that Lieut. General Scott has said that, in the event of Attorney, on or before Sale Day in February Virging exteding it was his determination to resign commission in the army, and make resign commission in the army, and make Virginia his place of residence for the remain-

TRAGEDY IN ALABAMA.—The suicide of Wm English, in Baldwin County, Alabama, after killing three of hiss children on the 14th inst., has been noticed. A letter in the Pensacola MANUFACTURING (Fla.) Observer gives further particulars of the horrible affair. It says:

"He went to Mobile with a draft on the bank of that city, calling for $60,000, which he failed to get. Supposing it lost forever, and himself and family impoverished, he returned home with a heavy heart. On the first evening after his return home he ordered the nurse to assemble the children in the parlor, which she did, not suspecting his murderous intentions. As soon as the nurse had left the room he approached the cradle in which lay his younges child, an infant nine months old, and cut its throat from ear to ear. The nurse happened to look through the window and saw what he was doing, and hastened to the garden where Mrs. English was superintending some work, and gave the alarm. Mrs. E. started for the house in all possible haste, and entered the parlor just as he had cut the throat of the third child, and was in act of cutting his own. Rushing forward, she seized him by the arm, and easting a woeful look at the bleeding and mangled forms of his children, demanded his reason for killing them. He gently pushed her away, saying at the time it was all for the best. Before she could get to him again he made a lick at his throat, completely severing the jugular veia, and falling into a chair, gave way by degreess and fell dead upon the floor, surrounded by the bleeding forms of his inno-

THE AUTHOR OF DINIE'S LAND.—For the bene fit of our musical readers, we will state that the author of this pepular refrain is Daniel D. Another Letter from Major Anderson.—The following letter from Major Anderson has been received by a gantleman in Cincinnati:
